K TO CAMPUS

How the Education Reform Movement Can Reshape Higher Ed

OCTOBER 23 & 24, 2024 • MALIBU, CALIFORNIA • PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

PEPPERDINE
School of Public Policy

ABOUT THE EVENT

Hosted by The Center for Civil Society, this conference's theme is K to Campus: How the Education Reform Movement Can Reshape Higher Ed. Topics explored include K-12 educational quality, free speech on college campuses, reform efforts and ideas for higher education, and donor intent. We are targeting 180 attendees at the conference with a mix of philanthropists, nonprofit and higher education leaders, board members, scholars, and others.

This conference is part of the Center's Givers, Doers, and Thinkers conference series, events which convene donors and organizational leaders together with leading thinkers to share ideas on how to conserve the natural and cultural goods of our communities and our nation.
